And to Three Private Bills.

After which His Majesty was pleased to make the following most gracious Speech:

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

HAving thought it necessary to give so early a Commencement to the present Session of Parliament, I am glad to find, that by your Zeal and Assiduity in the Dispatch of the Public Business, I am now enabled to relieve you from your Attendance, before the Season of the Year is too far advanced.

I cannot put an End to the Session, without expressing My entire Approbation of your Conduct, and thanking you for that clear Demonstration, which your Proceedings, through the whole Course of the Session, have afforded to all the World, of the affectionate Attachment of My Parliament to My Person and Government, as well as of their steady Adherence to the true Interest of their Country.

It was with much Satisfaction that I observed your particular Attention to those great National Objects, which, at the Opening of the Session, I recommended to your more immediate Consideration. The Result of your Deliberations, respecting the late Acquisitions in the East-Indies, has shewn, that you were not more attentive to the immediate Benefit arising therefrom in Point of Revenue, than to the Securing, at all Events, the permanent Commercial Interests of this Country, and guarding against every possible Discouragement to our own Manufactures, Manufactures, and to the Induſtry of My Subjects. What more remains to be done, for ſecuring the Poſſeſſion of thoſe valuable Acquiſitions, you will, I doubt not, proceed to provide for, with all convenient Diſpatch, at your next Meeting.

The Meaſures which I had taken regarding the late unhappy Diſturbances in North America, have been already laid before you. They have received your Approbation; and you have aſſured Me of your firm Support in the Proſecution of them. Nothing, in My Opinion, could be more likely to enable the Well-diſpoſed among My Subjects, in that Part of the World, effectually to diſcourage and defeat the Deſigns of the Factious and Seditious, than the hearty Concurrence of every Branch of the Legiſlature in the Reſolution of maintaining the Execution of the Laws in every Part of My Dominions. And there is nothing I more ardently wiſh for, than to ſee it produce that good Effect.

With Reſpect to Foreign Affairs, My own Determination, as well as the Aſſurances given Me by the other Powers of Europe, continue the ſame as I communicated to you at the Beginning of this Seſſion: And, however unſucceſsful My Attempts have proved for preventing the unfortunate Rupture which has happened between Ruſſia and the Porte, I ſhall not fail to uſe My good Offices towards reſtoring Peace between thoſe Powers; and I truſt, that the Calamities of War will not extend to any other Part of Europe.

Gentlemen of the Houſe of Commons,

My particular Thanks are due to you, as well for the Supplies which you have granted Me for the Services of the current Year, as for the Proviſion which you have made for enabling Me to diſcharge the Debt incurred upon Account of My Civil Government. Your Readineſs in relieving Me from the Difficulties increaſing upon Me from the Continuance of that Debt, I ſhall ever conſider as an additional Motive for Me to endeavor to confine the Expences of My Civil Government within ſuch Bounds, as the Honor of My Crown can poſſibly admit.

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

It gives Me great Concern, to be obliged to recommend to you, with more than ordinary Earneſtneſs, that you would all, in your ſeveral Countries, exert your utmoſt Efforts for the Maintenance of Public Peace, and of good Order among My People. You muſt be ſenſible, that whatever obſtructs, in any Degree, the regular Execution of the Laws, or weakens the Authority of the Magiſtrate, muſt leſſen the only Security, which My People can have for the undiſturbed Enjoyment of their Rights and Liberties. From your Endeavors in this common Cauſe, I promiſe Myſelf the moſt ſalutary Effect: On My Part, no Countenance or Support ſhall be wanting; for as I have ever made, and ever ſhall make, Our excellent Conſtitution the Rule of My own Conduct, ſo ſhall I always conſider it as equally My Duty to exert every Power, with which that Conſtitution has entruſted Me, for preſerving it ſafe from Violation of every Kind; being fully convinced, that in ſo doing, I ſhall moſt effectually provide for the true Intereſt and Happineſs of My People.

Then the Lord Chancellor, by His Majeſty's Command, ſaid;

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

IT is His Majeſty's Royal Will and Pleaſure, That this Parliament be prorogued to Wedneſday the 14th of June next, to be then here held; and this Parliament is accordingly prorogued to Wedneſday the 14th of June next.

Liſbon, April 10. Their moſt Faithful Majeſties, accompanied by the Prince and Princeſs of Brazil, and the Infantas Marianna and Benedicta, went on the 4th Inſtant to Salvaterra.

On the 3d Inſtant a Book entitled, Maxims and Spiritual Exerciſes of the Monks, ſtiled Jacobins, was burnt here by the Hands of the Common Hangman, as falſe, ſeditious, and ſcandalous, purſuant to a Sentence of the Royal Tribunal, called Meza Cenſoria.

His moſt Faithful Majeſty has been pleaſed to confer the Command of the Royal Volunteers Cavalry, vacant by the Death of Colonel Chauncey, on Major General Edward Smith; and to create the eldeſt Son of the Marquiſs de Angeza, who lately married a Daughter of the Marquis of Lavradio, Count of Villa Verde.

Liſbon, April 14. The Weather has been ſo foul and ſtormy, that the Engliſh Packet-boat could not poſſibly get out: The exceeding hard Rains occaſioned great Inundations in the Neighbourhood of Santarem and Parts adjacent; and on the 12th ſeveral human Bodies and drowned Cattle were brought down the River, along with the Ruins of Cottages, Implements of Agriculture, and other Marks of the Devaſtation, which the Overflowing of the Waters had occaſioned; and the Damage, which has been done, is ſaid to be very conſiderable.
